Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Wednesday 05 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rather cold with scattered showers on Thursday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers dying away during the evening, before building in the north overnight and feeding southwards towards dawn, possibly turning wintry to quite low levels. Frost for many by dawn. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Thursday:
Another day of sunshine and occasional showers, perhaps thundery during the afternoon. Winds north to northwest, fresh to strong across the Isles and coasts. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Sunshine and showers for Friday, with outbreaks focus during the afternoon. Mainly dry, bright start for Saturday, then gales and rain spreading from south later. Showers for Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.